

LEAD YOUR LIFE AS IT IS.

Leading your life as it is makes you enjoy your ~~world~~ adventure in the world of malice, greed, bribery, etc. These things though are bad we must ask ourself: "Is there any good thing, without a bad thing?" ~~The~~ For an example:

We are all climbing a steep mountain with your friends. You have reached halfway with great difficulty and numerous obstacles in your path. But while climbing with your friend you do not feel much difficulty, and you enjoy moments with your friend, and you live in the moment. We do not think about the past or future. This itself is a great feeling. When you reach the top of the mountain, you feel proud and also feel you have achieved something.

Here the mountain is a metaphor for life.

The friends are a metaphor for discipline and good habits.

The obstacles are a metaphor for difficulties in our life.

It is not wrong to be ambitious, but we must not expect ourselves to do which we are incapable of. Others may expect great things from you but only you know your capacity. You may do greater or lesser than what others expect, but putting your soul and hardwork in the task gives you more pleasure in the world. It is not a matter of fact of ~~it~~ How much you had achieved? But of how you achieved? Others may think different but remember only you are truthful to yourselves. We must set ourselves small goals and work towards it. You must do hardwork and most of all enjoy the work. We must stop complaining to God about why he had given us sorrowful times, but instead we must learn to dwell out of it. We must lead the life as it is and ~~st~~ set store only by our goals or ambitions.
